

A collaborative training event that explores how community-based efforts to prevent terrorism and counter violent extremism (CVE) fit into the broader homeland security mission.

STRIVE

Strategic, Tactical, and Resilient Interdiction of Violent Extremism

PILOT PROGRAM

STRIVE brings together public-safety practitioners and their community partners to learn and engage in meaningful discussions about the principles and practices that form the foundation of countering violent extremism in our nation's communities.

Date: December 18-19, 2018

Location: Richmond Police Department
Training Academy, Room 103
1202 W Graham Rd, Richmond, VA 23220

Time: 8:00 am-5:00 pm

No Cost Registration

Participants are responsible for travel, lodging and meals

Audience

Community leaders;
law enforcement professionals;
local, state, tribal, and
territorial government leaders;
campus community members

Registration

1. Obtain FEMA Student Identification (SID) Number at <https://cdp.dhs.gov/FEMASID>
2. Register online at www.vcpitraining.org

This program was supported by Cooperative Agreement Number EMW-2015-CA-00163, administered by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, National Training and Education Division. Points of view or opinions in this program are those of the author(s) and do not represent the position or policies of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.