

STRIVE

Strategic, Tactical, and Resilient Interdiction of Violent Extremism

A collaborative training event that explores how community-based efforts to prevent terrorism and counter violent extremism (CVE) fit into the broader homeland security mission.

STRIVE brings together public-safety practitioners and their community partners to learn and engage in meaningful discussions about the principles and practices that form the foundation of countering violent extremism in our nation's communities.

Audience

- Community leaders
- Law enforcement professionals
- Local, state, tribal, and territorial government leaders
- Campus community members

No Cost Registration

*Students are responsible for travel & lodging.
Refreshments & lunch will be provided by the host.*

- 1: Obtain FEMA Student Identification (SID) Number at:
cdp.dhs.gov/FEMASID
- 2: Register online at:
www.vcpitraining.org

Date:

October 8-9, 2019

Time:

8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Host:

Penobscot County Emergency Management

Event Location:

Jeff's Catering and Event Center
15 Littlefield Road
Brewer, ME 04412

This program was supported by Cooperative Agreement Number EMW-2015-CA-00163, administered by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, National Training and Education Division. Points of view or opinions in this program are those of the author(s) and do not represent the position or policies of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.